

Sectoral

Space

1. What is the function of IN-SPACe?

IN-SPACe, is responsible to promote, enable, authorize, and supervise various space activities of the NGEs that include, among others, the building of launch vehicles & satellites and providing space-based services; sharing of space infrastructure and premises under the control of DOS/ISRO; and establishment of new space infrastructure and facilities.

2. What is the single window approval system in Space sector?

Indian National Space Promotion and Authorisation Centre (IN-SPACe) a single-window, independent, nodal agency which functions as an autonomous agency in Department of Space (DOS) facilitates single window approvals in the space sector.

3. What is NSIL?

NSIL is the commercial arm of Indian Space Research Organisation (ISRO) with the primary responsibility of enabling Indian industries to take up high technology space related activities and is also responsible for promotion and commercial exploitation of the products and services emanating from the Indian space programme.

4. What are industrial cluster of aerospace and where?

Industrial clusters are a concentration of related or several industrial sites to aerospace that are grouped within proximity to one another. India has established several industrial clusters e.g. Salem aerospace cluster, Tamil Nadu and Belagavi Aerospace cluster, Aerospace and Innovation centre with IISc at Chitradurga, Devanahalli cluster and others.